ARTICLE XI
DAILY EMPLOYEES

Section 11.01 Daily Employees

Daily Employees are those Employees hired on a daily basis for any purpose.

Section 11.02

Wages/Overtime

- (a) Daily Employees in classifications other than News Assistant and News Writer will be paid an hourly rate equal to one-fortieth (1/40) of the full-time weekly salary for their classification, plus an additional fifteen percent (15%). Daily News Assistants will be paid an hourly rate not less than one-fortieth (1/40) of the applicable full-time weekly salary for their length of service, plus an additional fifteen percent (15%), based upon their first day of hire as a daily News Assistant, even if such date of first hire pre-dates this Agreement. Daily News Writers will be paid an hourly rate not less than one-fortieth (1/40th) of the applicable full-time weekly salary, plus a fifteen percent (15%). For the purposes of advancement on wage escalators only, daily News Writers and/or News Assistants who are upgraded to daily News Writers shall be given credit for one (1) week of service for each forty (40) hours of work. Daily Employees will be eligible only for such benefits as specified in this Article. If such Employee is assigned to work on a holiday named in Article XV, he/she will be paid a premium of one-half (½) times the basic rate for all hours worked on such day. Daily Employees shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1-1/2) times their regular hourly rate of pay for all actual work in excess of eight (8) hours on any one day and all actual work in excess of forty (40) hours in any work week, as provided in Article IX. Daily Employees shall be paid at the rate of two times (2x) their regular hourly rate of pay for all work in excess of twelve (12) hours of actual work since his/her in-time on any one day, as provided in Article IX. Daily Employees will have contributions made on their behalf by the Company to the Entertainment Industry Flex Plan, or its equivalent, at the rate of ten percent (10%) of straight time pay. Such contributions shall be remitted bi-weekly to the Entertainment Industry Flex Plan.
- (b) Daily Employees shall be notified of the cancellation of any scheduled shift not later than forty-eight (48) hours prior to the start of the call. If such notice is not given, the affected Employee shall be paid for all scheduled work.
- (c) Daily Employees will receive paid time off as follows:
 - (i) Daily Employees who have worked the following listed hours (all hours worked) for KTTV/KCOP in each of the previous two (2) calendar years shall receive paid time off as follows in the following vacation year (February 1 through January 31):

Hours	PTO Days
1000	5
1080	6
1160	7
1240	8
1320	9

1400	10
1480	11
1560	12
1640	13

- (ii) After a Daily Employee has worked one thousand (1000) hours (all hours worked) for three (3) or more consecutive calendar years, if in the next calendar year he/she works more than seven hundred fifty (750) but less than one thousand (1000) hours (all hours worked), he/she shall receive three (3) days of paid time off in the following vacation year. In order to qualify for paid time off in the vacation year subsequent to the year in which he/she received three (3) days of paid time off, he/she must meet the minimum qualification level in Section 11.02(c)(i) above.

Such paid time off will not accumulate from year to year. Once a Daily Employee has qualified for paid time off and received it for a vacation year, in order to receive it in the next vacation year, he/she must have worked the requisite amount of time in the previous calendar year only. If a Daily Employee leaves the employ of the Company during any calendar year for any reason, he/she shall be paid for any unused paid time off from that year. Additionally, he/she shall be paid for any paid time off he/she would have been eligible to take during the next vacation year, based on all hours worked during the calendar year in which he/she left the employ of the Company. When paid time off is to be used as sick leave, a Daily Employee shall give a minimum of two and one-half (2-1/2) hours' notice. When paid time off is to be used as planned time off, it will be scheduled by mutual agreement between the Daily Employee and the Company and may be taken as single or multiple days. The Daily Employee must request such planned time off at least one (1) week in advance on a form to be provided by the Company. The Company will respond to such request within forty-eight (48) hours. The Company may also elect to have Daily Employees choose such planned time off at the same time regular full-time Employees choose vacation or any other methodology for the choosing of paid time off which makes operational sense. In the event of any conflict between Daily Employees over scheduling of paid time off, the Company has the sole discretion to resolve the conflict and in doing so will consider the work assignment of the Daily Employees, the availability of replacements, the relative length of service of the Daily Employees and any other relevant factors.

Each January, the Company will notify the affected Daily Employees and the Union of the number of days of paid time off for which the Daily Employees have qualified for that vacation year. Quarterly updates will also be given to the Union. Each July, the Company will give each affected Daily Employee an accounting of how many days of paid time off he/she has remaining for that vacation year with a reminder that such paid time off cannot be carried over to the next vacation year.

- (d) (i) Daily Employees may contribute to the Communications Workers of America Savings and Retirement Trust ("CWA-SRT", also known as the CWA 401(k) Plan) through pre-tax payroll deductions in accordance with the terms and provisions of said Plan. Such contributions shall be remitted bi-weekly to the CWA-SRT.

(ii) DELETED

Section 11.03

Section 11.04

Staff to Daily Ratio

(a) The number of daily Employees may not exceed the number of regular full-time Employees in any classification, except that in the classifications of News Assistants there shall be no limitation.

Notwithstanding the above, the Company will not increase the total number of daily Employees so as to exceed the ratio of Dailies to regular full-time Employees to more than the ratio of one daily to one regular full-time Employee.

(b) When a staff vacancy occurs, Daily employees who are regularly performing the duties of the open position shall have the right to request and receive consideration for the staff position. Such consideration shall include an interview with a News Manager.

Section 11.05

Jury Duty for Daily Employees

A Daily Employee who qualifies for paid time off, is required by law to serve as a juror and who presents satisfactory written evidence of such requirement, shall be paid eight (8) hours' at his/her regular straight time rate of pay for each day that he/she actually is on jury duty, provided the Daily Employee would normally have been scheduled to work that day, to a maximum of ten (10) days per calendar year. A Daily Employee who is on-call for jury duty, but who is not required to report to the court, shall report to KTTV/KCOP for assignment at a time determined by KTTV/KCOP. Upon completion of jury duty, the Daily Employee will immediately provide the Company with proof of jury service. Additionally, see Section 9.04 for scheduling requirements.

Section 11.06

Cessation of Scheduling

If the Company ceases to hire/schedule a Daily Employee, he/she will be paid for all time posted on the current schedule for the seven (7) day period immediately following the date on which the Station notifies the Daily Employee of such cessation.

ARTICLE XII
SENIORITY, LAYOFFS AND REHIRS

Section 12.01

Classifications

Producers, News Writers, Directors, Associate Directors, Assignment Editors, News Assistants, Edit Coordinators, and Character Generator Operators shall be separate classifications for purposes of layoffs and rehires.

Section 12.02

Layoffs

When layoffs (reductions in force) of Employees are made, such layoffs shall be made in inverse order of seniority based upon classification. If two or more employees affected by a layoff have the same classification seniority date, unit seniority shall govern.

In the event that a layoff concerns one or more Employees in regular full-time positions, all probationary Employees within the affected classification shall be the first to be laid off.

Section 12.03

Bumping

DELETED

Section 12.04

Downgrading

In the event an Employee's performance is unsatisfactory, in lieu of discipline and/or discharge under Article VIII, the Company may elect the following procedure: For the purposes of this Section, an Employee's performance will be evaluated by the News Director only according to the following standards:

1. Accuracy in performance (e.g., writing, calling shots, timing of broadcast and carrying out the direction and philosophy of news management).
2. Objectivity (editorial consideration-presenting both sides of an issue or story).
3. Clarity in communication.
4. Organization of time, resources and people.
5. Decision making ability.
6. Flexibility (react and change with the day's news events).
7. Meet realistic deadlines.
8. Exercising appropriate leadership and initiative.

In the event an Employee's performance is determined to be unacceptable, the Company must notify the Employee of his or her unsatisfactory performance. Such Notice must be in writing and such writing must specify the nature, extent and content of their unacceptable performance. It must also include specific examples of a recurring pattern of failure to meet the above standards.

Following delivery of the Notice, the Employee must be given a sixty (60) day evaluation period, the intent of which is to correct the deficiency. An Employee may be downgraded following this sixty (60) day evaluation period only after failure to comply with specific standards contained in the notice. The downgrading shall be subject to grievances and arbitration if such downgrading is:

- (i) disciplinary, or
- (ii) made in bad faith, or
- (iii) not made in accordance with the above standards.

The burden shall be on the Company to justify the downgrade and such downgrading shall not be done for the purpose of creating classification vacancies.

In the event the arbitrator finds that the downgrade was disciplinary, made in bad faith or not made in accordance with the above standards, the arbitrator may make all appropriate orders, including, but not necessarily limited to, restoration to and reassignment to the higher classification.

The Employee may accept the downgrade or elect to receive severance as provided for in Section 12.06(b) provided the employee executes a General Release acceptable to the Company and the Union waiving all claims against the Company and the Union.

Section 12.05

Types of Seniority

- (a) Unit seniority is measured by the length of service accumulated in all classifications covered by this Agreement and shall control preference of vacation.
- (b) Total Company seniority is measured by the length of service with the Company and shall control notice of layoff or pay in lieu thereof, severance pay, and length of vacation.
- (c) Seniority in a particular classification is measured by the length of service in the particular classification.

Section 12.06

Notice of Layoff

- (a) Any regular full-time Employee who is laid off shall receive advance notice of such termination equal to one (1) week's notice for each year of service completed up to a maximum of four (4) weeks' notice or pay in lieu thereof, but in no event less than two (2) weeks' notice, which shall be in addition to any vacation or holiday pay which such Employee may be entitled to upon such layoff pursuant to this Agreement.

- (b) Severance Pay - Any regular full-time Employee who is laid off and executes a General Release acceptable to the Company and the Union waiving all claims against the Company and the Union shall receive, in addition to Section 12.06(a) above, severance pay in an amount equal to one (1) week's pay for each year of service completed up to a maximum of thirty (30) weeks' severance pay.

Section 12.07

Service

Employees who are laid off shall, on or before the effective date of layoff, receive a service letter from the Company, if same is requested. A copy of such letter shall also be sent to the Union.

Section 12.08

Re-Employment

- (a) Before a new Employee is employed by the Station in any classification in the bargaining unit treated separately for seniority purposes, an Employee with more than one (1) year of full-time staff seniority who has been laid off and who possesses the necessary skills and abilities to perform the work required shall be offered reemployment on the basis of seniority in such classification for a period of one (1) year from his/her effective date of layoff.

An offer of re-employment shall be sent by the Company to the Employee's last known home address by certified mail, with a copy to the Union. If such Employee fails to notify the Company in writing of his/her acceptance within ten (10) days of dispatch of said offer, or if such Employee after so notifying the Company of his/her acceptance fails to report to work at the Station when required (but need not report sooner than twenty-one (21) days from the date of dispatch of said offer) then all of his/her rights under this Agreement shall terminate forthwith. However, if an Employee is offered re-employment on a temporary basis, then the period during which he/she must be offered re-employment shall not terminate if he/she declines such offer of temporary re-employment within ten (10) days of the date of dispatch of said offer.

- (b) If a laid off Employee is re-employed during the period when he/she is entitled to receive an offer of re-employment, then his/her seniority shall be bridged for pay and all other purposes (except severance pay) so that his/her seniority on his/her re-employment date shall be the same as on his/her effective date of layoff; it being understood that vacations shall be reduced on a pro-rata basis for the period of layoff.

ARTICLE XIII

Section 13.01

Temporary Upgrades

An Employee who is temporarily upgraded to a higher classification shall be paid for such higher classification during any period of such upgrade as follows:

- (a) If a member of the unit performs duties in a higher classification he/she shall receive the upgrade rate for not less than fifty percent (50%) of that scheduled working day (excluding overtime), provided, however, that he/she is not under the supervision of an Assignment Editor, the News Director or the Executive Producer.
- (b) In the event such duties are performed for more than fifty percent (50%) of that scheduled working day (excluding overtime), the Employee performing such duties shall be paid one-fifth (1/5) of the minimum weekly wage of the higher classification, in lieu of his/her regular wage, for such day.
- (c) In no event shall such higher classification result in a lesser pay scale.
- (d) Any non-exclusive jurisdictional work for new and emerging technology (in accordance with Section 3.12) will only result in upgrades to the position of Producer. However, the Company agrees to discuss this topic on an on-going basis in meetings pursuant to Section 24.02.
- (e) A News Employee who has been upgraded for fifty percent (50%) or more of his/her working days in the previous twelve (12) months shall receive his/her upgraded salary while on vacation, sick leave, bereavement leave, jury duty leave, personal leave, paid time off and compensating days off.

Effective June 30, 2016, a News Assistant who has been upgraded for sixty percent (60%) or more of his/her working days in the previous twelve (12) months, including the 12-month period immediately preceding June 30, 2016, shall receive a permanent change of job classification into the classification for which they have been so upgraded.

Section 13.02

Upgrades to Assignment Editor

Notwithstanding anything contained in Sections 13.01(a) and (b) above, in the event a News Assistant is assigned to perform the duties of an Assignment Editor while no member of management or an Assignment Editor is present in the Newsroom or its environs, he/she shall be paid an upgraded rate as provided in Section 13.01 above for the time spent performing such duties and for the entire day if he/she performs such duties for more than fifty percent (50%) of that work day.

Section 13.03

Temporary Upgrades to Associate Director

- (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 13.01 above, a News Assistant may be upgraded to an Associate Director, whose duties shall include coordinating on-air remotes, assisting the Producer and Director with technical, production, pre-production and post-production details. Associate Directors may perform any and all News Assistant duties as in Section 3.08. Associate Directors may direct cut-ins whether pre-taped or live not exceeding five (5) minutes per cut-in. A Director will be assigned to any work shift that an Associate Director works.
- (b) Any News Assistant upgraded to an Associate Director shall be upgraded for not less than an eight (8) hour workday. Any Employee so upgraded shall continue to be classified as a News Assistant for purposes of bumping, layoff and recall. Any News Assistant so upgraded shall have his/her hourly straight time rate increased by Four Dollars ($4.00) for each day such Employee is so assigned.

Section 13.04

Those duties include assigning personnel to prepare news material, writing duties, and assisting in the supervision of writing and editing news materials. Associate Producers may perform any and all News Writer duties as in Section 3.04. Any News Writer upgraded to Associate Producer shall be upgraded for not less than an eight (8) hour work day. Any Employee so upgraded shall continue to be classified as a News Writer for purposes of bumping, layoff and recall.
- (b) Any News Writer so upgraded shall have his/her hourly straight time rate increased by Three Dollars ($3.00) for each day such Employee is so assigned.

A News Assistant may be temporarily upgraded to the position of Character Generator Operator and shall be paid a daily fee of Thirty Dollars ($30.00) when so upgraded. News Writers may perform Character Generator Operator duties without additional compensation.

ARTICLE XIV
VACATIONS

Section 14.01

Vacations

The vacation period hereunder shall be between April 1 of each year and March 31 of the subsequent year. Employees shall receive a vacation with pay according to their length of service as of October 31st of each such year, as follows:

LENGTH OF SERVICE	VACATION TIME
0 - 6 Months	See below for calculation
6 - 12 Months	1 Week
1 - 5 Years	2 Weeks
5 - 10 Years	3 Weeks
Over 10 Years	4 Weeks

Up to five (5) days of vacation days may be carried over from one vacation period to the next with the express written permission of the Company.

Probationary Employees and Daily Employees who become regular Employees and qualify for vacation may have the scheduling of such earned vacation deferred to a mutually agreeable time, not necessarily within the vacation period set forth above.

Employees hired with less than six (6) months of service for seniority purposes, who are hired between any May 1 and October 31 shall receive vacation at the rate of 0.42 days per month for each month beginning on their hire date until October 31. Such vacation shall be taken between November 1 (of their hire year) and March 31 (of the following calendar year) and shall be scheduled in the same manner as vacation days.

Employees on an approved leave of absence which lasts longer than nine (9) months shall continue to be eligible to receive vacation time for the first nine (9) months only of their leave of absence, commencing on the first day of their leave of absence. If such Employee has not used his/her vacation time for the vacation year in which the leave of absence commences by March 31 of that vacation year, and he/she is still on approved leave of absence as of March 31, he/she shall be paid for his/her remaining vacation time. Employees returning to work from an approved leave of absence which exceeds nine (9) months shall receive vacation with pay for each month of service, as per the table set forth in Section 14.04, according to their length of service as of October 31st of such year.

Upon the commencement of an approved leave of absence, an Employee may elect to receive vacation to which he/she may be entitled.

In the event such an Employee returns from a leave of absence exceeding nine (9) months, and has received vacation in excess of that to which he/she is entitled (by reason of the duration of said leave), the vacation to which such Employee shall be entitled to receive in the subsequent vacation period shall be reduced to the extent that such Employee has received such "excess" vacation.

Example: Employee goes on sick leave and subsequently on long term disability beginning August 1, 1998. She has eight (8) years of service. She had already taken all of her vacation for the 1998 vacation year (April 1, 1998 through March 31, 1999). She returns to work September 1, 1999. Beginning May 1, 1999, she no longer receives vacation time (nine (9) months have passed since her leave began). When she returns on September 1, 1999, she receives vacation from November 1, 1998 through April 30, 1999; no vacation is received between May 1, 1999 and August 31, 1999; and she receives vacation from September 1, 1999 through October 31, 1999. Her vacation is calculated at the rate of 1.25 days per month.

Section 14.02

Vacation Schedules

- (a) During January and February of each year, Employees shall select vacation to be taken in the next vacation period in weekly increments (a minimum of one (1) week for those Employees receiving either one (1) or two (2) weeks of vacation; and a minimum of two (2) weeks for those Employees receiving three (3) or four (4) weeks of vacation). Vacation schedules shall be posted by March 1 of each year. Vacation selection shall be based on seniority, subject to the Company's bona fide operational requirements (e.g., sweeps). Holiday period vacation (as defined in 14.02(b)) may not be selected at this time; it must be handled pursuant to Section 14.02(b) below.

The Company shall allot six (6) vacation slots for each week that vacations may be scheduled. Not more than one (1) Show Producer, one (1) Director or Associate Director, one (1) News Writer (or two (2) News Writers if no Show Producer is on vacation that week), one (1) Assignment Editor, and two (2) News Assistants may be on vacation during any week. However, the Station may add weeks to the vacation schedule after March 1 of any year, which weeks may be selected vacation weeks in lieu of previously selected vacation weeks by the most senior Employee to indicate a desire to select such newly posted vacation weeks within five (5) days of such weeks having been posted. If an Employee notifies the Station at least two (2) weeks but less than four (4) weeks prior to the posting of the scheduled days off for the week in question, such Employee may choose to have his/her scheduled days off contiguous to either the start or the end of his/her vacation; it being understood, however, that such Employee waives his/her rights under Section 9.05(a)(iv) of this Agreement.

Once posted, the remainder of an Employee's vacation may be taken in daily or weekly increments and shall be scheduled by mutual agreement with the Company on an ad hoc basis, with the Employee to request such vacation at least three (3) weeks in advance. The Company will respond to the Employee's request within five (5) calendar days after the request is made. Such ad hoc vacation selection may not "bump" selections on the annual vacation schedule.

- (b) The Company will give good faith consideration to allowing one (1) News Writer and one (1) News Assistant to schedule vacation during each of the February, May and November sweeps. Employees who wish to request vacation time during the two (2) week Christmas/New Year holiday period must submit their requests no later than September 1st. The Company will make a good faith effort, giving due consideration to the requesting Employees' relative seniority and the operational requirements of the News Department, to grant as many vacation requests as possible during such holiday period. Employees will be notified by September 30th of the Company's decision as to vacation schedules during the holiday period.

Section 14.03 Vacation Pay Upon Termination

An Employee with more than six (6) months of service shall upon termination of his/her employment at the Station receive his/her accrued vacation pay for each month of service from the prior October 31 to his/her date of termination, as follows:

Length of Service	Accrued Days of Vacation Per Month
6-12 months	0.42 days
1-5 years	0.83 days
5-10 years	1.25 days
Over 10 years	1.67 days

ARTICLE XV
HOLIDAYS

Section 15.01 Holidays

Employees shall receive the following holidays on the days designated by the Company:

New Year's Day	Labor Day
Martin Luther King Birthday	Thanksgiving Day
President's Day	Friday After Thanksgiving
Memorial Day	Day Before Christmas
Independence Day	Christmas Day

Section 15.02 Work on Holiday

If an Employee is required to work on any of the aforesaid holidays, such Employee shall receive additional half-time for all hours worked on such day and a compensating day off to be mutually agreeable between the Employee and the Company, but in no event later than three hundred and sixty-five (365) days subsequent to the day on which the compensating day off is earned. An Employee so required to work may elect to receive an additional regular day's pay in lieu of receiving a compensating day off, for Washington's Birthday, Thanksgiving Day, Friday After Thanksgiving, Day Before Christmas and Christmas Day holidays. For an Employee required to work on New Year's Day, Martin Luther King Birthday, Memorial Day, Independence Day and Labor Day holidays, the Company shall elect whether the Employee shall receive an additional regular day's pay or a compensating day; with the Company to give the Employee three (3) weeks or more notice as to the Company's election. An additional day's pay shall be paid in lieu of any compensatory day not taken prior to three hundred and sixty-five (365) days subsequent to the day on which the compensating day off is earned.

Section 15.03

Compensating Day Off

If a holiday falls on an Employee's day off or during an Employee's vacation, such Employee will receive a compensating day off to be designated by the Company, but in no event later than three hundred and sixty-five (365) days subsequent to the day on which the compensating day off is earned, or in lieu of other compensation, compensation at his/her straight time rate of pay. Any compensatory day not taken or given prior to three hundred and sixty-five (365) days subsequent to the day on which the compensating day off is earned shall be paid in lieu thereof at his/her straight time rate of pay.

ARTICLE XVI
INSURANCE AND OTHER BENEFITS

Section 16.01

Medical, Life and Long Term Disability Insurance

- (a) Regular Employees shall be eligible to elect coverage under the Company's medical insurance, dental insurance, vision insurance, health care and dependent care flexible spending accounts, long term disability insurance (commencing after ninety (90) days of absence), personal accident insurance, business travel accident, basic life insurance and group universal life insurance benefits, current copies of which have been delivered to the Union, subject to the terms and conditions thereof. It is understood by the parties that benefits provided to Employees under this Agreement are the same as the benefits generally provided to non-represented employees of the Company (including contribution rates). If the Company makes any changes in the non-represented benefits, then the same changes will be made to the benefits provided to Employees under this Agreement. Such changes include the addition to, subtraction from, modification of, or termination of the foregoing benefit plans in any manner, at the Company's sole discretion, provided that the same changes are made to non-represented employee plan(s). Notice will be given to the Union and the Employees of any such changes, but such changes will not be subject to negotiation nor to the grievance and arbitration procedures under this Agreement, except to enforce the provisions of this Section.
- (b) (Section Deleted)

- (c) If the Company institutes child care services for its employees generally, Employees shall be eligible for such services.

ARTICLE XVII
PENSION

Section 17.01

Pension

- (a) The News Employees as a group shall be deemed as an included unit under the Pension Plan for Union Employees of Fox Television Stations, Inc. ("Pension Plan"), a current copy of which has been received by the Union, subject to all terms and conditions thereof, and any future changes made in the Pension Plan by the Company to comply with applicable law. This Agreement reflects an unreduced pension at age 62, rather than at age 65. Participation (as defined by the Pension Plan) by Daily Employees in the Pension Plan ceased as of May 30, 1999. The benefits earned by Daily Employees as of that date were determined, and each participating Daily Employee was one hundred percent (100%) vested in his/her benefit as of May 30, 1999. The News Employees may retire voluntarily or be retired involuntarily under the Pension Plan upon and subject to the provisions thereof. Retirement shall not be deemed either a layoff or discharge.

Section 18.01

Sick Leave

An Employee who is compelled to absent himself/herself from work temporarily because of illness or disability shall receive eight (8) hours' pay at his/her regular rate for each such day's absence other than for his/her scheduled days off in accordance with the following:

- (a) Each Employee shall be entitled to receive up to twelve (12) days' sick leave during each calendar year, plus his/her unused sick leave for any prior calendar year, up to a maximum of ninety (90) days' sick leave in any calendar year.

In the case of a work-related injury which causes an Employee to be unable to work for up to ninety (90) calendar days, and for which an Employee is receiving Workers Compensation benefits, the Company will pay such Employee a weekly benefit equal to the difference between the Employee's Workers Compensation and sixty percent (60%) of his/her regular straight time rate of pay following the exhaustion of an Employee's accumulated sick leave or beginning with the sixth week of the Employee's absence, whichever is later. Such benefit will cease upon the Employee being eligible for benefits under the Company's Long Term Disability Plan for Union Employees.

An Employee on an approved leave of absence which has exceeded nine (9) months on any January 1 shall not accrue sick leave as of that date. Upon the Employee's return to work, he/she will be credited with sick leave on a pro-rata basis for the remainder of that calendar year.

An Employee with five (5) years' or more seniority who has been absent for two (2) years due to illness or disability may be terminated by the Company. The determination of the Employee's length of seniority for the foregoing shall be the Employee's length of seniority after ninety (90) calendar days of illness or disability. However, any return to work during the ninety (90) calendar day period for fifteen (15) work days or less shall not "break" the ninety (90) day period, and any return to work during the one (1), two (2) or three (3) year period (whichever is applicable) for fifteen (15) work days or less shall not "break" the one (1), two (2) or three (3) year period (whichever is applicable). If an Employee employed by KTTV/KCOP is on such long term leave of absence for the purpose of serving as a full-time elected officer of NABET-CWA Local 53, his/her service during the period of such leave shall be considered as membership service for purposes of the Pension Plan for Union Employees of Fox Television Stations, Inc. For purposes of determining a benefit under said Pension Plan, such Employee shall be considered to have earned wages at the then-current rate for his/her classification during the term of such leave. The preceding shall apply under the Pension Plan for Union Employees of Fox Television Stations, Inc. only if the Employee returns to Company employment at the end of such leave, unless his/her failure to return is due to illness or death.

Upon return of an Employee from such leave of absence, he/she shall be re-employed in the position he/she held immediately preceding such leave, and for the purposes of his/her seniority, the time of such leave, not to exceed ninety (90) calendar days, shall be considered as time worked as an Employee. Sideletter No. 2

Vacation Selection

During the negotiations for a successor agreement to the 2016-2019 Agreement, the Company and the Union discussed the inability of certain full-time staff employees to take paid vacation time during the weeks which include Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years Day because such weeks were chosen by more senior employees under the vacation selection procedures set forth in Section 14. Notwithstanding the provisions set forth in Section 14, the Union and the Company agree that for the first annual vacation selection period that occurs after the ratification of a new successor agreement, full-time staff employees who during the previous vacation year took any paid vacation time during the weeks which include Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Years Day shall not be permitted to choose vacation during such weeks unless all other employees in their respective vacation selection groups have had an opportunity to select vacation during such weeks. The Company and Union agree that this sideletter shall apply for the first annual vacation selection period that occurs after the ratification of a new successor agreement only. The company and the Union agree to meet and discuss the provisions of this sideletter after the first annual vacation selection period that occurs after the ratification of a new successor agreement and after each subsequent annual vacation selection period. If both parties mutually agree at such meetings, the provisions of this sideletter shall apply for subsequent annual vacation selection periods. The provision of this sideletter shall be subject to the grievance provisions of the Agreement, but shall not be subject to arbitration.
