

DIVING IN 2025

by Louis Gabriele

The Usual Suspects:

PR Newswire reported on March 27, 2025 that CES 2025 had 142,465 attendees from across the globe. 40% or 57,401 of which were international participants. There were more than 4,500 registered exhibitors including 4,582 members of the media also. "It is a powerful tech event to explore innovation and technology to shape the future."

CEO Gary Shapiro said, "CES is where the global tech community meets to set the agenda for the year ahead. They move innovation forward and catalyze solutions, making the world better."

Transportation

Celebration 100 years, CEO Ed Bastian praised Delta's loyal, long-standing employees. "Technology is a powerful tool, but it is people that make true innovation possible. We are on the brink of a new era, and I cannot think of a better way to demonstrate how the Delta team will leverage cutting-edge advancements to propel our next century of flight." Blending AI and customer needs, CEO Bastian introduced for the future "Delta Concierge" where Delta will handle the needs of travelers.

Traveler "EVE" is in a hurry to get to the airport. Bastian recommends a "Joby" (future). It will be a new breed of an electric vehicle, vertical takeoff and landing aircraft.

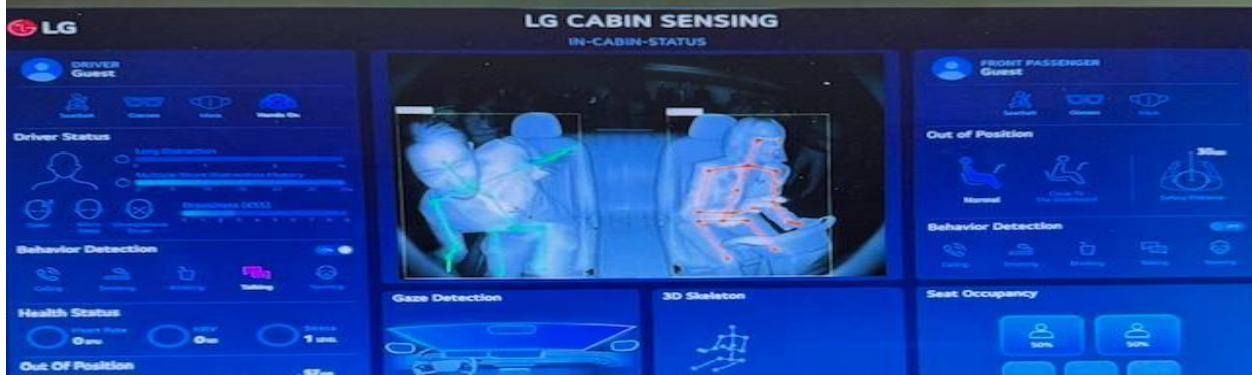

On a simple side, ride a bicycle made for adults and kids:

Cars

The cars of the future will have some sort of cabin sensing of the driver and passenger that would include behavior detection, health status, position, gaze detection, 3D skeleton, seat occupancy, holographic windshield. KIA EV9 was the first to introduce the windshield.

CAMERAS and LENSES

Don't look surprised! Just take your pick, if you want.

Lumix

Nikon

Canon

Fujifilm

Farming

John Deere & Company's Senior Vice President Jahmy Hindman reported that the world population is expected to increase to 10 billion from 8 billion over the period of 10 years. The needs of the growing population are enormous. There are approximately 2.4 million jobs available. John Deere & Company is playing their part with their Autonomy Machinery.

A good massage is never bad. It's time to Chill until next year!!

By Louis Gabriele