BULLETIN #1

NABET-CWA Local 53
Burbank, California
September 19, 2012, 5:00 p.m. (PST)

The Union Negotiating Committee met with the Company Tuesday and Wednesday to exchange initial Proposals. The Union impressed upon the Company the need for permanent staff positions and the job security that comes with it.

The Company has stated that it would like more flexibility in the way it runs its operation, as if it wasn't flexible enough already! The Company has also expressed its desire to reduce costs as they are contending that KWHY is a small start-up operation.

This was just the first meeting, so much more discussion needs to take place before the Negotiating Committee and the Company can get down to the core proposals that can get us closer to an agreement that we can live with.

As always, if anyone has questions or comments please contact your negotiating Committee.
